

Hello, my name is Gregory Romanovsky, and I am currently a senior at Niles North. I am currently enrolled in my first STEM research course. The experiences that I have had in SIRS are learning about many new topics and learning how to research topics extensively and how to properly document results. The SIRS class that I was enrolled in was very